

More media consolidation is a very bad option in our system based on democracy. The rules should serve the public and not just private interests. It is vital that you retain the current ownership rules. I hope you will stand by the people on June 2nd.